“ It was truly a privelage to watch those ewo girls grow up. The years that they lived next to me were filled with laughter, tears, fights like only sisters can. Beeca was a rare treat, a girl that beat alot of odds to become an example of what hard work and determination can bring. a scholarship not for athletic endeavors bur for busting your butt and getting what you deserve. This loss has crushed me as i know it has many, many others. The one thing I can say is that in twenty one years she accomplished more than most of us could hope to achieve in long, long lifetime.,

“ Becca didn't know a stranger. Her bright, blue, sparkling eyes always welcomed people as she passed by them. Her smile was infectious. She will be missed by many, many people. I have been sorely affected by her tragic ending, and I cannot begin to imagine the depth of pain her family and friends are experiencing. My heart hurts for all the people closest to her. May God abundantly give you inner peace and comfort, and may you feel the love of others who share in your grief.,
